AFFIDAVIT OF STEPHANIE MAISONET

PERSONALLY APPEARED before me, an officer duly authorized by law to administer oaths, STEPHANIE MAISONET, who after being duly sworn, files this Affidavit and states the following facts:

1. My name is STEPHANIE MAISONET, and I am competent in all respects to testify regarding the matters set forth herein. I am a United States citizen over 18 years of age. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and know them to be true. I have no interest in the outcome of this case.
2. I am the mother of LeShawn McCoy’s six (6) year old son.
3. I lived at LeShawn McCoy’s residence in 2011, until he kicked me out, along with our son. LeShawn McCoy refused to let me back into the residence to retrieve any of our son’s clothes. He also took back certain items that he purchased for me.
4. On July 9, 2018, I was with LeShawn McCoy and Tamarcus Porter to receive a passport for our son.
5. I overheard LeShawn McCoy speaking on the phone with someone in which he stated, “I need to get this bitch out of my house”.

6. Later that day, LeShawn McCoy was supposed to exercise his parenting time with our son, pursuant to our custody agreement. I received notice through Tamarcus Porter that he and LeShawn McCoy would be unable to pick up our son that day.
7. July 9, 2018 was the first time that LeShawn McCoy has ever had to reschedule picking up our son.
8. On July 10, 2018, I heard about the home invasion that took place at LeShawn McCoy's residence.
9. Normally, LeShawn McCoy requires that I speak directly with Tamarcus Porter in regard to our son. This arrangement has been in place for years.
10. After the home invasion, LeShawn McCoy decided to contact me directly for the first time in years. LeShawn McCoy talked badly about Delicia Cordon and proffered that if I help him with this home invasion, he will concede in our custody case by allowing me to enroll my son in school in Miami. I found this to be odd because he has been fighting so hard against that during our custody battle. Also, if he did not have any involvement in the home invasion, there is no need to make such an extreme offer. LeShawn McCoy's mother also contacted me and tried to persuade me into being a character witness for LeShawn McCoy. Reluctantly, I agreed to help him because I believed that I was acting in the best interest of our son.
11. I gave Tamarcus Porter my Instagram password and he wrote a comment pretending to be me. The comment stated that the allegations about LeShawn McCoy abusing our son were false and that Delicia Cordon was trying to ruin him.
12. However, I knew the allegations were true and even made a report about LeShawn McCoy abusing our son to child services, prior to the home invasion. That case is still pending. Our son would often come home with bruises in which I would consistently receive outlandish excuses as to where the bruises would come from.

13. Our son would cry hysterically whenever he had to spend time with LeShawn McCoy.

Our son would cry even harder if he knew that Delicia Cordon was not going to be present during LeShawn McCoy's parenting time.

14. I regret ever agreeing to help LeShawn McCoy in this case. He should not get away with potentially orchestrating this heinous incident.

15. I feel like I am sending our son to a monster every two weeks. LeShawn McCoy should be held accountable for his actions, regardless of his career choice or his income.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYS NOT.
